Artesian Well Which Gives a Flow of Eight Gallons a Minute-Sulphur Springs Vineyard Operations Being Largely Extenued.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 24.—The season at Colonial Beach, the popplar resort on the Potomac Raver, in Westmoreland county, is now at its height. The town is full of visitors from the city and others are arriving each all doing a fine business. Bathing in the day, driving in the evening, fishing, sailing on the broad Potomac and dancing at night are among the enter attractions. There is talk of building another wharf and of running a daily steamer to Pope's Creek, on the Maryland side of the Potomac, to connect with the railroad at that point, which would be a great advantage to residents and visitors at Colonial Beach, as several hours could be saved each way, going and coming from Washington and Baltimore and other

TAPPAHANNOCK FAIR.

The ninth annual fair of the Tidewater Stock and Industrial Association will be held at Tappahannock, September 3rd, 4th and 5th, and extra efforts are being put forth to make it a finer success than ever before. The racing will be a feature and some fine herses are expected to contest in the races.

Work on the Donaldson and Shultz pickle factory at Tappahannock is pro-gressing and the plant will soon be completed and ready for operation. A fine artesian well has been drilled at the plant, which gives a flow of eight gallons of water a minute.

The Henry Dannehl Company, of this city, proprietors of the Sulphur Springs vineyards and cellars, are extending their operations. Their vineyards are located within a few miles of this city and some of the vines were planted as far back as 1888. The varieties are Concord, Clin-ton, Ives and Norton Virginia. This company disposes of most of its wines to local trade. This section is well adapted to the growing of grapes and bids fair to be one of the prominent wineproducing districts. A number of other parties are also cultivating vineyards and making wine on a smaller scale. ADJUDGED INSANE.

Mr. James May Woltz, son of the late Colonel John W. Woltz, has been adjudged insane here and was to-day taken to the Western State Hospital at Staunton . Mr. Watt Henderson, of King George PHILIPPE. W. VA., July 24.—Two necroes, whose names are unknown, were briched at Whomelsdorf, near here, last night by an anery mob numbering several hundred, and their mutilated bodies left on the common. The first victim was shot and killed in the station-house; the second was taken to the nark, where he was hanged and then riddled with bullets and cut to pieces. Both whites and negroes are enraged and in arms.

More trouble is hourly expected. The trouble grows out of the murder of Chief Bud Wilmoth, July 234. Several other arrests have been made and lynchings seem imminent on every side. The dead blacks were captured near Bellington and were locked up there, officers fearing lynching if they were taken to Elkins. Negroes are leaving on every train.
